JEAN R. YAWKEY

President

Jean R. Yawkey is a general partner and president of the Red Sox, a position she has held for the past 11 years. Mrs. Yawkey succeeded her husband, Tom, as president in 1976.

Tom Yawkey was the sole owner of the team 44 seasons, longer than anyone in baseball history, and transformed the Red Sox from one of baseball's weakest clubs to among the healthiest while creating a New England institution. He also rebuilt Fenway Park into a charming and cozy landmark.

A Red Sox enthusiast, Mrs. Yawkey attends virtually every home game in her familiar rooftop box, where for years she watched by her husband's side.

Mrs. Yawkey is a Brooklyn native. As Jean Hollander, she grew up in Freeport, Long Island, and was a New York fashion model 10 years before becoming Mrs. Tom Yawkey in 1944 at Georgetown, S.C.

During World War II Mrs. Yawkey was active with the Red Cross. She has long been associated with New England's famed Jimmy Fund/Dana-Farber Cancer Institute; formerly chairman of the board and now a trustee, and for the past 14 years has been active in Tara Hall, a non-denomination home and school for boys in South Carolina. She also is a trustee of the Yawkey Foundation, which supports the 40,000 acre Tom Yawkey Wildlife Center, willed by Mr. Yawkey, an avid outdoorsman and dedicated conservationist, to the state of South Carolina.

Jean Yawkey and the Yawkey Foundation also support numerous humanitarian, cultural and athletic activities, including the Boys and Girls Clubs, the U.S. Olympics, and the Boston Park League Baseball Association.

Mrs. Yawkey holds the distinction of being the first woman to be elected a director of the Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y.

She maintains residences in Boston and South Carolina.

HAYWOOD C. SULLIVAN

Chief Executive Officer/Chief Operating Officer

Haywood C. Sullivan is a Red Sox general partner and the club's chief executive officer/chief operating officer. He was named to that position in June 1984 after being executive vice president and general manager in charge of baseball matters from October 1977. He was also a principal in the group which purchased the club from the Yawkey Estate in May 1978.

Sullivan, 55, is a baseball success story — a onetime reserve catcher who rose from dugout to ownership of the team. Born in Donalsonville, Ga., he was a three-sport star at Dothan (Ala.) High School and was all-conference in baseball and football at the University of Florida. A top pro prospect as both a quarterback and a catcher, Sullivan signed with the Red Sox on June 15, 1952. The Sox outbid the Yankees among other teams.

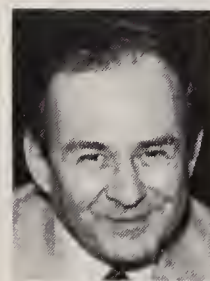

Following two years of Army service with the 82nd Division, 101st Airborne and Adjutant General Corps in 1953-55, Sullivan became plagued by an aching back that eventually required disc surgery in 1958. The 6-foot-4, 210-pounder played in only 60 games over parts of four seasons for the 1955-57-59-60 Red Sox before being dealt to Kansas City, where he appeared in 252 games for the 1961-63 A's before retiring to manage in the minors. Two seasons later he was back with the A's as their manager in 1965, leaving at year's end to rejoin the Red Sox as a vice president in charge of player personnel — at age 35 one of baseball's youngest top executives. Within a year, after eight sub-.500 seasons, the Red Sox became contenders and have remained so under the leadership of Sullivan, an architect of Boston's exciting 1967 and 1975 pennant-winners. Sully was named the American League's top executive in 1981 in a poll by United Press International.

Sullivan is a member of the major leagues' Restructuring Committee and Long-Range Planning Committee and is on the board of directors of the American League. He served on the majors' Executive Council for four years and is also a trustee of the Jimmy Fund.

Haywood resides in Canton, Mass. He and his wife, Pat, have three children: Marc, 27 (a catcher on the Red Sox 40-man roster), and 23-year-old twins Kyle and Sharon.

EDWARD G. (BUDDY) LeROUX, Jr.

General Partner

Edward G. (Buddy) LeRoux, Jr., is a Red Sox general partner.

LeRoux, 54, is one of baseball's more remarkable stories — like Sullivan, rising from dugout to ownership of the team. Buddy was the Red Sox trainer from 1966-74, including the "Impossible Dream" pennant-winners in 1967. Prior to that, he was trainer of the Boston Celtics from 1958-66, through eight consecutive world championships.

LeRoux started in professional sports after graduating in 1950 from high school in his native Woburn, Mass. He got a tryout with the Boston Bruins at training camp, was quickly cut ("after a couple of shifts against Milt Schmidt," the NHL Hall of Famer) — but was hired by the Bruins as an equipment manager and apprentice trainer. He served five years in the Bruin organization, both in the minors and as an assistant with the Boston varsity, before being "borrowed for the playoffs" by Red Auerbach for the Celtics — and staying eight more seasons.

In addition to his administrative accomplishments at Fenway Park, LeRoux has long been active in the health and real estate fields. Most prominently, he is founder and president of New England Rehabilitation Hospital in Woburn, Mass., a nationally recognized 200-bed facility offering extensive restorative and rehabilitative services to both in- and out-patients with a staff of 868 people.

Besides being a trustee of the Jimmy Fund, Buddy is a member of the President's Committee on the Handicapped, the President's Committee on Physical Fitness and the Governor's Committee on Physical Fitness. He founded Champions for Children at Boston's famed Children's Hospital and in the '60s traveled behind the Iron Curtain and throughout Europe and South America conducting athletic injury clinics for the State Department.

Buddy and his wife, Adelaide, reside in Winter Haven, Fla., and maintain an apartment in Boston. They have three children: Lisa, 24, Denise, 22, and Scott, 16.

JAMES (LOU) GORMAN
Vice President, General Manager

James (Lou) Gorman is running the Red Sox baseball operation for the third year. On June 5, 1984 he was promoted to vice president and general manager. He came to the club from the N.Y. Mets on February 1, 1984 when he was named vice-president and director of baseball operations. In his position as general manager of the Red Sox Gorman handles all matters relating to the operation of the major league ball club on the field as well as the overall responsibility for the procurement and development of player talent within the organization.

It is a return home to his "roots" for Gorman who grew up in Providence, R.I. as a "dyed in the wool" Red Sox fan, and who graduated from LaSalle Academy in Providence, Stonehill College in No. Easton, Mass. and Bridgewater State in Bridgewater, Mass. Lou earned an A.B. Degree at Stonehill and a Master's Degree in Education at Bridgewater State. He also attended Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. to obtain a Master's Degree in English. In 1978 he was honored by Stonehill College as the "Outstanding Alumnus of the Year". He is on the board of advisors at Stonehill College.

Just prior to joining the Red Sox Gorman spent 3½ years with the New York Mets as vice president and director of baseball operations. During his tenure with the Mets they developed outstanding major league talent like Darryl Strawberry, Dwight Gooden, Ron Darling and Doug Sisk who helped the Mets into a contending position in the N.L. East. The Mets were also honored with back-to-back awards as the Major League Organization of the Year.

Gorman began his major league career as the assistant farm and scouting director for the Baltimore Orioles after having served an apprenticeship in the minor leagues as general manager at Lakeland in the Florida State League and Kinston, N.C. in the Carolina League. A year ago he was inducted into the Kinston Sports Hall of Fame.

Lou was promoted to the position of director of minor league clubs in 1966. In his first year the Orioles won four minor league championships, the Major League team won its first World's Series and Baltimore was selected as the Major League Organization of the Year.

Gorman joined the expansion Kansas City Royals in 1968 as director of player development. In 1970 he was named the director of both player development and player procurement, and in 1973 he was made a vice president of the Royals with the added responsibility of directing the Royals' unique Baseball Academy.

The Royals became the most successful expansion club in baseball history with five divisional titles and one American League Championship. Under Gorman's direction the Royals signed and developed such future M.L. stars as George Brett, Paul Splittorff, Steve Busby, Dennis Leonard, Willie Wilson, John Wathan, Doug Bird and Frank White.

In 1975 Gorman was named the Royals vice president and assistant general manager. The following year he left the Royals to join Danny Kaye's newly-formed Seattle Mariners as the vice president in charge of baseball operations. In 1978 he became the Mariners' general manager.

After building the foundation of another expansion Major League organization, Gorman left the Mariners to join the New York Mets, and his former boss Frank Cashen, as the vice president and director of baseball operations in November of 1980.

Lou serves on the Major League Amateur Study Committee, the Major League's College and High School Committee, and is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Major League Scouting Bureau.

Gorman recently retired as Captain in the Naval Reserve after having served 34 years as an active Reservist. His time in the Reserve included eight years active duty, including Korean War service. He also spent 26 months on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Hornet and 21 months on board the cruiser U.S.S. Salem.

He and his wife of twenty-one years, Mary Lou, reside in Weston, Mass.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

JOHN M. (JOHNNY) PESKY

Over the last 41 years Pesky has been associated with the Red Sox in almost every phase of the game, as a player, coach, manager, radio-TV announcer and advertising salesman. He was named a special assistant to general manager Lou Gorman, after the 1984 season, after 10 years as a Red Sox coach.

His duties include coaching in spring training, special assignment work on the major and minor league levels, community-related functions and other projects.

Pesky was an outstanding hitter and infielder who hit .307 in a 10-year career with the Red Sox, Detroit and Washington. He holds the Red Sox record for most hits by a rookie (205) and was the first to have three 200-hit years (Jim Rice and Wade Boggs have also done so). He's tied for the M.L. record of leading a league in hits three straight years. In 1985 Boggs broke his club record of 172 singles in one season.

HOMES OF THE RED SOX

Fenway Park opened in 1912, with the first official game April 20 (after rainouts the previous two days) . . . The Red Sox defeated the N.Y. Highlanders (now Yankees) 7-6 in 11 innings before 27,000 as Tris Speaker drove in the winning run . . . The story was pushed off the front pages of Boston newspapers by news of the Titanic's sinking . . . Prior to 1912 the Red Sox played their home games at the Huntington Ave. Grounds, now part of Northeastern University . . . In the winter of 1933-34 new owner Thomas A. Yawkey put Fenway Park through a major reconstruction phase . . . The 23-foot-tall screen was put above the LF wall in 1936, the bullpens were constructed in front of the bleachers in 1940, arc lights were installed in 1947 and the new messageboard in CF was part of a construction project in 1976 that included a rebuilding of the LF wall.

THE MANAGER

JOHN FRANCIS (JOHN) McNAMARA #1

Age: 53, Turns 54 June 4; Born: June 4, 1932, Sacramento, Cal. Ht.: 5-10; Wt.: 175. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Natick, Mass. Married Ellen Goode.

The Red Sox finished 81-81 in John McNamara's first season in Boston. Seven major disabling injuries, including four on the pitching staff, hampered McNamara's managerial efforts. He used 79 different lineups, 18 different starting players and 13 starting pitchers. Despite the uncertainty of the pitching staff, McNamara's hurlers allowed the second least home runs, ranked third in strikeouts and the 4.06 ERA was the club's best since 1982.

On Oct. 18, 1984 McNamara was named the 36th manager of the Red Sox. He replaced Ralph Houk who retired after four years at Boston. McNamara is starting his 13th full year as a major league manager. Only Sparky Anderson (Detroit) and Gene Mauch

(Angels) hold seniority over him among A.L. managers.

Entering 1986 McNamara's major league record was 832-886, including 329-332 in four years in the A.L.

McNamara managed the California Angels for two seasons. In 1984 the Angels finished in a second place tie with Minnesota at 81-81. In 1983 injuries crippled the Angels and they finished tied for fifth at 70-92. They were in first place as late as July 10, 1983.

McNamara was a minor league manager for nine years in the Kansas City A's organization before being named a coach with the A's in 1968 when they moved to Oakland. He has been in the major leagues ever since as either a manager or coach. John made his major league managerial debut with Oakland when he replaced Hank Bauer, Sept. 19, 1969. He led the A's to a second place finish in 1970.

His coaching stints include San Francisco (1971-73) and California (1978). He managed a young San Diego team from 1974 through May 28, 1977. The Padres record improved each year.

McNamara piloted Cincinnati from 1979 through July 20, 1982. He led the Reds to the N.L. West title in 1979 and in 1980 they finished only 3½ games out of first. In the strike-shortened 1981 season the Reds had the best overall record in baseball although they did not appear in post-season play.

McNamara was a minor league catcher and also pitched in 14 games over four years. He attended Sacramento State College and spent two years in the military.

REACHING BASE 300 TIMES

(H+BB+HP)

Reaching base 300 times by hits, walks and hit by pitches is a difficult feat. It has been done by only 37 players since 1901 (a total of 83 times). Twenty-one A.L. players have done it (53 times) and 16 N.L. players (30 times). Only 5 A.L. (Boggs twice, R. Henderson, Carew, Yaz & Killebrew) and 2 N.L. players (Rose 5 times & Trillo) have done it the last 17 years (Rose & Trillo are only 2 N.L. players to do so since 1958). Boggs' total of 340 in 1985 was the 7th best all-time and the most since T. Williams reached 358 times in 1949. Ten players have done it 3 or more times: Gehrig and Ruth 9, Williams 7, Musial 6, Rose 5, Foxx and Hornsby 4, Gehringer, Mantle and Speaker 3. Boggs did it in 1983 and 1985 and his total of 292 in 1984 fell 8 short but still led the majors.

DID YOU KNOW?

The RED SOX tied the Major League record by making three triple plays in 1979. They were the first SOX triple plays since 5/25/72 vs. the Orioles in Fenway Park. The SOX have not made one since 1979. The 1979 triple plays were:

Date	Opponent	Batter	Inn.	How
5/10	Angels	Rudi	7	Pop in short RF to Remy (2B), to Burleson (SS) to Scott (1B).
7/23	Angels	Aikens	8	Liner to Burleson (SS), tagged 2B, threw to Yaz (1B).
7/28	at Texas	Oliver	1	1st and 3rd, pop in short RF to Brohamer (2B), to Watson (1B) to Hobson (3B).

The last one against the RED SOX was 9/4/65 in N.Y. BOB TILLMAN grounded to Clete Boyer at 3B, who started a 5-4-3 DP with Bobby Richardson and Joe Pepitone. Pepitone then threw back to Boyer to get TONY CONIGLIARO at third.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE — A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . The meetings are conducted by conference phone . . . Selection of free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (early June) and Winter (early January) . . . There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase — Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age . . . Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase — Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age — now drafted in Regular Phase) . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player . . . The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13 team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) (Rule 4.10).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play . . . EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED GAME in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 4.12 . . .

Any LEGAL game called due to weather with the score TIED is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Other teams have played in Fenway Park besides the Red Sox. In 1914 the "Miracle Boston Braves" played their World Series games in Fenway enroute to a four-game sweep over the favored Philadelphia A's while Braves Field was under construction. The Boston Patriots (now New England Patriots) were fall occupants 1963-68 before eventually ending up in Foxboro. They were not the first pro football team in Fenway however. The Boston Redskins played four years there before heading to Washington in 1937. The Boston Yanks played there 1944-48 prior to traveling to New York, Dallas, Baltimore (where they became the Colts) and now Indianapolis.

Collegiately, Boston College teams of the great Frank Leahy era and Boston University with stellar quarterback Harry Agganis (later a promising Red Sox first baseman who died during the 1955 season) also played home games in Fenway Park.

WHY THE NAME FENWAY?

The new ballpark was constructed for the 1912 season and was named by then Red Sox owner John I. Taylor. He chose the name because "It's in the Fenway section (of Boston), isn't it? Then call it Fenway Park." It was also Taylor who changed the club's name from Pilgrims to Red Sox in 1907.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS

First Fenway fire: May 8, 1926. The bleachers along the leftfield foul line burned down and weren't replaced, giving fielders the chance to snare foul flies behind the third base grandstand.

First Sunday game at Fenway: July 3, 1932, a 13-2 loss to the Yankees. Sunday baseball was approved in Boston three years earlier, but not at Fenway due to its proximity to a church. The Red Sox then played their Sunday games at Braves Field on Commonwealth Ave. until the law was changed.

Second Fenway fire: January 5, 1934. A four-alarm, five-hour blaze that virtually destroyed the construction underway to refurbish the park by new owner T. A. Yawkey.

New Fenway opened: April 17, 1934. The Washington Senators, led by SS-manager Joe Cronin beat the Red Sox, 6-5 in 11-innings.

Biggest baseball crowds at Fenway: 47,627 for a Yankees doubleheader on September 22, 1935 . . . 46,995 for a Detroit Tigers doubleheader on August 19, 1934 . . . And — a week earlier — 46,766 to say goodbye to Babe Ruth at a Yankees doubleheader on August 12, 1934. Those crowds will never be equaled under Fenway's current dimensions. More stringent fire laws and league rules after World War II prohibited overcrowding that was permitted in the Thirties.

1947: Arc lights were installed, the third last team among the then 16 major league clubs to do so. The Red Sox defeated the White Sox, 5-3, in Fenway's first night game on June 13.

1947: Green paint replaced advertisements covering the left-field wall. No more Calvert owl ("Be wise"), Gem Blades ("Avoid 5 o'clock shadow"), Lifebuoy ("The Red Sox use it") and Vimms ("Get that Vimms feeling").

1948: Red Sox games were first televised at Fenway.

Spent eight seasons as minor league outfielder, then began managerial career in 1966 with Sarasota Yankees in Gulf Coast League. Joined Red Sox organization as coach at Jamestown, N.Y. BUMBRY, Alonza Benjamin (Al) Former Outfielder

Outfield and Baserunning Coach

Age: 38; Turns 39 Apr. 21; Born: April 21, 1947, Fredericksburg, VA.

Al was named a Red Sox minor league coach specializing in outfield play and baserunning in January 1986. He ended a 13-year M.L. career in 1985. Bumbry spent his entire career with Baltimore except last season when he hit .200 (19-95) in 68 games for San Diego. Al had a .281 career avg. (1422-5053) in 1496 games with 254 stolen bases. He holds the Orioles career stolen base record (252) and is 4th on their all-time hit list (1,403). Al won the A.L. Rookie of the Year award in 1973. In 1980 he became the 1st Oriole to have 200 hits in a season. Al served 11 months in Vietnam as a platoon leader, earned a Bronze Star and was discharged as a 1st lieutenant in May 1971. He is very active in numerous charities in the Maryland area.

POPOWSKI, Edward Joseph (Eddie, Pop) Former Second Baseman

Extended Spring Training

Age: 72. Turns 73 Aug. 20; Born: August 20, 1913, Sayerville, N.J.
Ht.: 5-5; Wt.: 145. Bats and Throws: Right. Resides: Sayerville, N.J.

Pop's pro baseball career stretches back to 1937, and except for one year of military service (1942), he has not been away from the game since. Even more remarkable: all 49 of his seasons have been spent with the Red Sox, as player, coach and manager. Best year as player was 1945, when he hit .321 as player-manager at Roanoke, Va. Before turning pro, Pop played for House of David touring team. He was only non-bearded member of that legendary team. After 21 seasons as minor league manager, Popowski moved to Fenway (and big leagues) for first time as coach in 1967. The timing was right: Boston won the pennant that season. Pop remained as coach through 1975 (and another World Series). He has worked as minor league instructor and coordinator of extended spring training for the last eleven seasons.
